He came from Detroit in his private car, rented for the occasion, with cook, butler, porter, barber, etc., at $500 a day.

four years ago with barely enough money to get safely out of gurshot range. He managed to reach Balti-more, worked his way on a vessel to the Pacific coast, succeeded, somebow. that he could not walk without the aid in getting a Klondike outfit together of crutches. He was treated by physicand went to the North with the gold cians, also used several kinds of lini ly, buying the old folks one of the best farms in the county, just on the outskirts of the town.

On Saturday he gave his father $20, 000 to build himself a place on the farm, and carted $150,000 in gold down to the Berkeley Springs Savings Bank for safekeeping.
When he was at home two years ago he took James Smith and George Ziler, who had been schoolmates of his, back to the Klondike with him; but the climate was too much for them, and they had to come home or die. On Saturday he appointed them his local agents, with nothing to do but help him amuse himself while at home and draw fat salaries while he is away. He will stay at Berkeley Springs awhile, but will return to the North to keep a close lookout on his interest. He said Saturday that he had gotten out $35, pain, curse wind solic, and is the only for Diarrhess. Is pleasant to the five million dollars. He has consider able to the Twenty-five cents a bottle. COLLEGE MEN'S DIET OF ONIONS Onions on steaks, onions boiled, onions in salad, are the rage at the University of Chicago, and it's all because DeWitt's Witch Hazel. Dr. Harper, the president of the institution, has been put on an onion diet. Dr. Sarah De Loss has been prescribin for President Harper, so the story goes. She believes in onions. All depends upon temperament, she maintains, and the temperament is shown by the h-ir, the eyes and the face. "There are five temperaments," Dr. D Loss explained, "all of which can be bettered by eating freely of onlows. I can easily prove to ou the potency of coions," continued Dr. De Loss. "Just take a piece of limestone—be sure it is limestone, however-and rub an onion upon it. You will find that the stone is soon reduced to a pulpy mage. So it is in the system. GIRL MANIAC'S WILD RIDE .- A diepatch from Uniontown, Pa., says: Lying exhausted beside a fire under a tree in the mountains, Miss Picasant Morgan, farmer's wealthy and handsome daugh-ter, was found by men who searched for her Friday and all Friday night. She led her pursuers a hot race. Mounted on her own fast horse she cluded them until she could go no farther because of the darkness. Then she made a wood fire and spent the night alone near an old abandoned furnace at Pridesville Furnace, W. Va.

Miss Morgan began to get insane a week ago and her dementia became nc-ticaole Wednesday. That night she lett home in Springhill township on horse-back, partly clothed and rode to town. She attracted large crowds on the streets here Thursday and friends took her in charge. Friday she got away from them, got her horse from the stable and started out to escape the people whom she claimed wanted to take her life. She dashed away and after a few miles ride doubled on her course and headed for the West Virginia mountains. She kept up a fast clip all afternoon, only stopping at Haydentown to eat and she covered over 40 miles before she and her horse were exhausted. Miss Morgan's father, David Morgan, the richest farmer in Springhill township, died a short time ago, and the heirs to his $200,000 estate are in itigstion over it. Grief over her father's death and her subsequent troubles are the cause of her mental collapse. is now at her home, closely watched.

FAMOUS TIFFANY BROOCH SOLD .-Simmons, the millionaire hardware dealer of St. Louis, has bought the family Tiffany pearl and emerald brooch, for which the shah of Persia is said to have made a fabulous offer. The brooch is unique mainly because every precious stone belonged to some historical crowned head of England or France. One pes I once adorned a ring worn by Marie Antoinette. The hardware mer-chant intends the brooch for a wedding gift to his daughter.
